Mobrie Dec 10th 1874.

Miss Gage. I am truly thank-ful that you have my note, and acc comply with my request. I think I have remembered dear dear Jerry every day since he parted in 1861. Now nearly forteen long years. Of all my friends I think

I love him best. Every day seems to make him dearer to me. And my perfect remembrance of his features keeps him before me continually. I despair of ever getting his picture.
& am consequently more grateful than you can imagine.

I beg you will not let the matter rest

With the Copy is sent her, and I trust it will not give much trouble.

Miss Gordon begs to be affectionately remembered to yourself. Your sister and Mother. And with my kindest regards and thanks.
I am very respectfully.

James L. Gordon.
